Senior Class
Presents 1960 MOHI
Volume VIII

Foreword

As the school year passes, we pause to catch a final glimpse of everything we have done. Our classmates, our friends, our teachers, have all played a part in this our senior year.

We have attempted to preserve the memory through word and picture. You the students of MOHS made it; you lived it. Here it is---the 1960 MOHI.

Dedication

Your unwavering loyalty and years of service to our Alma Mater; your ever present expression of wise judgement and high Christian ideals; your sunny charm, your twinkling eyes, your understanding patience, and cheerfulness in making our days bright; your encouragement and guidance which inspired us all to work toward achieving our best, has made your name synonymous with our memories of MOHS.

It is with gratitude and devotion that we dedicate this, the 1960 MOHI to Miss Kathleen Dail.

Miss Dail is smilingly admiring her Bulletin Board on the United Nations.

Miss Dail points out features of one of her attractive French bulletin boards.

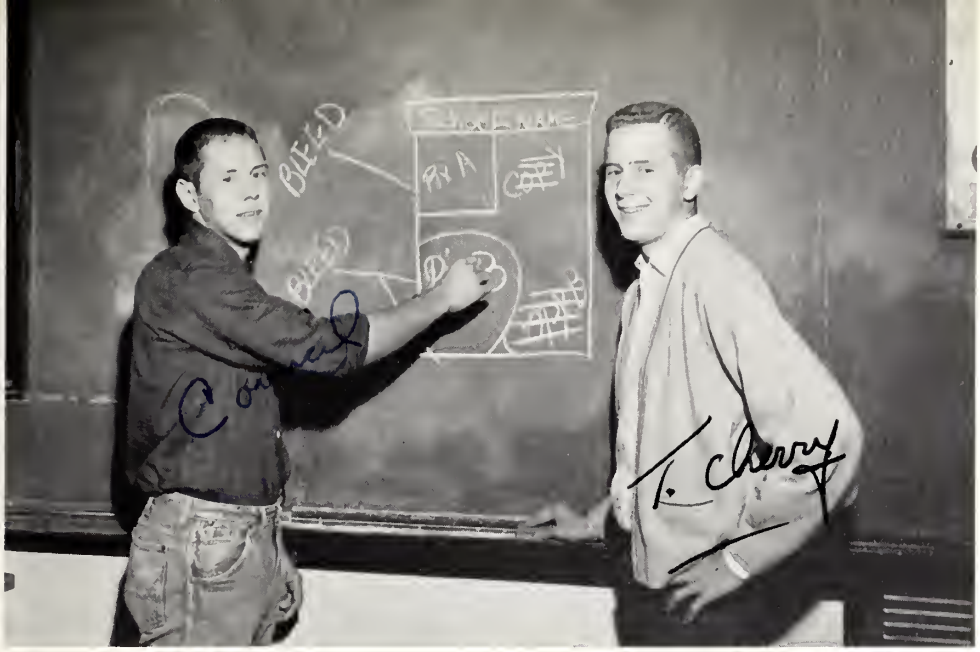
Billie Carol McPhail is busy checking up on add receipts, while Mary Hontz is checking up on subscriptions.

Linda Kay Wells, Sam Taylor and Jane Clifton are looking over clubs, sports and snapshot pictures.



Art editors, Council Oliver and "T" Cherry are using their talents to an advantage.

DeWitt Grady, head typist, had his helpers Mig O'Berry, Hattie Sutton and Alan Adams busy typing layout sheets.

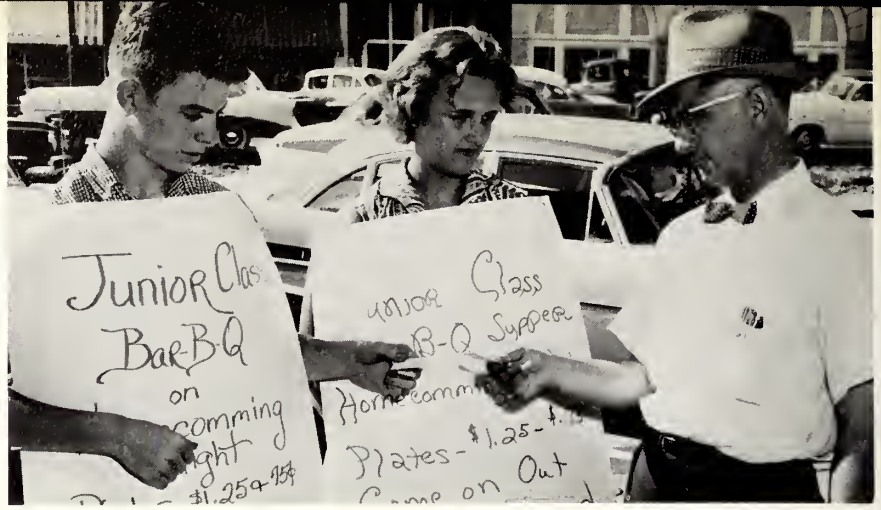
Senior Moments to Remember



Baxton Flowers and Billie Carol McPhail are busy selling Bar-B-Que tickets for our Junior Class supper.

Our Junior-Senior Banquet was hard work, but we will never forget the fun we had.

Our Junior Play Cast had a hard time.

Senior Moments to Remember

We were all excited and happy when our contestant, Catherine Lister, left; won the title of Miss Armistice Day.

Our new Activity bus finally arrived.

Richard,
I know you will be glad to stay out of here. If you don't stop smoking chewing gum in Mack's room, you'll never get out. (Don't drive him too crazy.)
Seriously, I have enjoyed being in school with you boys and get out in school with you
two more years.
Be good!
